GENERAL SESSIONS

Long before the pandemic hit, the lighting industry realized the importance of keeping up with fast-paced change through continuity and diversification while supporting current business and practices. It is used to shifting sand and the creativity coming out of 2020 is proof that NALMCO members are never shaken.

During Convention, we will hear from an expert in business continuity as well as seasoned experts from the lighting field on ways to keep the business ball rolling as you progress into the future doing what you do best: lighting up an ever-changing world.

NALMCO's Workforce Development Solutions

Brian Baker, CLMC, CLCP, and Kim Cagle, CLMC, CLCP, NALMCO certification committee co-chairs

Join Brian and Kim as they address the best ways to recruit and retain a qualified workforce using NALMCO's four certification programs: Certified Lighting Apprentice Technician (CALT), Certified Senior Lighting Technician (CSLT), Certified Lighting Controls Professional (CLCP) and the Certified Lighting Management Consultant (CLMC).
